

Kelly's Beach...

It may only be a short walk to the town centre of Bargarra; with its quaint street shops and cafes, and it may be just a short drive to the city of Bundaberg, but you would never know it. Kelly's Beach can fool you into thinking you have the whole place to yourself... you'll soon discover that you share this special place with some of nature's oldest creatures, like humpback whales that often swim so close to the shore, schools of playful dolphins, and if you're patient... you may even see the giant sea turtles coming in to nest, right here on Kelly's Beach.

Set amongst tropical landscaping with an indulgent wet-edge pool and sundeck, DUNE homes feel just the way a beach home should; a seaside sanctuary, where you can soak up that coastal ambience from your luxurious cocoon.

And on those perfect days, of which there are plenty, you can let that ambience drift right in... for the glass walls that separate you from this pristine environment need not exist, they simply slide away. The open, airy interiors bathe in natural light and the rich timber floors that lead your feet out to huge external timber decks make it hard to distinguish exactly where the indoors end and the outdoors begin.

These are not the only treasures you'll discover at DUNE. Look closely and you'll find luxurious interior finishes, plush wool carpet and air conditioned comfort. You'll find contemporary kitchens with Smeg appliances, opulent master suites and beautifully appointed ensuites with twin vanities and a twin spa. And if you're ready for this ultimate indulgence... you may just find yourself here.
